

You can hear it from a distance; the boosting voice of a reporter, growling engines, the blast of a starting pistol... In a few moments, the big racers of the early days will pass. Cheering for the leader, encouraging words for the laggard. The audience suddenly becomes part of the pit stop where champagne flows, tires are changed, cars have to be fuelled up and checked for the next heat. Let's hit the road again! Till the bitter end, fully focused till the finish line. Inspired by the heroic pioneers of automotive history and those beautiful cars. A walk act with lots of humor and show.
