

LAST MINUTE

5, 6, 7 ... The clock is ticking. The surprising figures of Last Minute want to live the life to the fullest. But for them it is also hard to manage the time. They are wasting time, they are distracted, they lose their attention, a suitcase is forgotten and then there are all kinds of obstacles on their path. There is no way to reset the time. This multi-coloured ensemble will make you laugh about all those moments in daily life that will get you out of rhythm as well. A dynamic roaming act with suitcases, a huge hourglass or other props.
