

BARON VON MÜNCHHAUSEN

The legendary Baron Karl Friedrich von Münchhausen returns in his own story, still convinced that all his adventures really happened. According to the many tales the Baron was capable of doing all the impossible. Like flying on a cannon ball, riding on his halved horse, turning hungry wolves inside out or pulling himself out of the swamp by his own hair! Suitcase by suitcase these unbelievable events and hunting stories will be unravelled. The Baron will prove his right in a very charming way. But please, don't mind his breakneck stunts. It's a visual spectacle with many unforgettable moments, performed by a man-size puppet and two fine gentlemen.
